

Wallpaper*

AUGUST 2007

*INTERNATIONAL DESIGN

LIMITED EDITION COVER
BY KEIICHI TANAKAMI

DRAWER ▲

Years since Alessi launched its collection, by Stefano Giovannoni, aged. No longer the preserve of the designers, the bathroom is now not one to be left on the sideline, reached Dot, a hugely competitive Dutch architect Wiel Arets, that plays the charming side of bathroom design. part of the Dot range, by Wiel Arets for Laufen, tel: 44.1386 422768 (UK)

THE W* HOUSE

Bathroom

With a cool cabinet and tempting tiles, we've got clean lines on tap

'+/-' CABINET by Studio Dror

Because there are some mornings when you want to admire yourself lengthways and others when you'd rather see as little as possible, Studio Dror has designed the '+/-' bathroom cabinet. When closed, the horizontal mirror conceals a cabinet; to open, just rotate to a vertical position. '+/-' cabinet, price to be confirmed, by Studio Dror, for Boffi, tel: 39.03 625 341 (Italy), www.boffi.com

'TAPESTRY' TILES ▼ by Heath Ceramics

Being based in Sausalito, California, you might expect Heath Ceramics to have a laid-back West Coast spirit. Yet the firm is as hard-working as they come. Founded by artist Edith Heath, it has been designing limited-production dinnerware and tiles for over 60 years. Its vivacious 'Tapestry' tiles are inspired by crafts from sewing to bricklaying. 'Stitch' tile in 'Volcano', $78, part of the 'Tapestry'

Wallpaper August 2007
+/- Cabinet

Dror 225 WEST 39TH STREET
6TH FLOOR
NEW YORK · NY 10018